REAGLE MUSIC THEATRE TO COLLECT TOYS FOR WALTHAM HIGH SCHOOL
STUDENT SANTA PROGRAM AT “IT’S CHRISTMASTIME” DECEMBER 3-12

Patrons May Donate Toys in the Robinson Theatre Lobby Prior to Each Performance

WALTHAM – This year the Reagle Music Theatre of Greater Boston will be collecting toys for the Waltham High School Student Santa Program at each performance of “It’s ChristmasTime” December 3 through 12. Patrons wishing to donate are asked to bring new, unwrapped toys suitable for boys and girls ages 6 months to 10 years. Students from Waltham High School will be present to collect donations in the Robinson Theatre lobby before each show.

The Student Santa program annually collects toys for more than 300 children living in Waltham. High school students collect, wrap, and distribute the toys, assigning them according to age and gender appropriateness. According to Stephen Goodwin, one of the faculty organizers of the program, a variety of affordable toys rather than one expensive item are desired so that each child may receive multiple gifts on Christmas day.

“We are thrilled that Reagle Music Theatre is joining in our effort to provide toys for economically challenged families,” says Goodwin. “Each year 10,000 people attend ‘It’s ChristmasTime.’ If just one percent of those audience members bring toys, that’s another 100 children who can share in the joy of the season.”

This year the Student Santa program will be collecting toys beginning the weekend after Thanksgiving through December 20. Donations may also be dropped off at the Main Office of Waltham High School during school hours.

“It’s ChristmasTime” performs Fridays, December 3 & 10 at 7:30 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays, December 4 & 5 and 11 & 12, at 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. The Robinson Theatre is located at 617 Lexington Street, Waltham.
